

Middle School Course

The middle school runners will run the highlighted small loop twice. The first loop through they will run along the baseball fence and past the finish line. Then continue to run that loop again and run to the finish line.